GDPR Policy Statement

Principal Security Consultants Limited is committed to conducting its business in accordance with all applicable Data Protection laws and regulations and in line with the highest standards of ethical conduct.

This policy sets forth the expected behaviors of Principal Security Consultants Limited Employees and Third Parties in relation to the collection, use, retention, transfer, disclosure and destruction of any Personal Data belonging to a Principal Security Consultants Limited Contact (i.e. the Data Subject).

Personal Data is any information (including opinions and intentions) which relates to an identified or Identifiable Natural Person. Personal Data is subject to certain legal safeguards and other regulations, which impose restrictions on how organisations may process Personal Data. An organisation that handles Personal Data and makes decisions about its use is known as a Data Controller. Principal Security Consultants Limited, as a Data Controller, is responsible for ensuring compliance with the Data Protection requirements outlined in this policy. Non-compliance may expose Principal Security Consultants Limited to complaints, regulatory action, fines and/or reputational damage.

Principal Security Consultants Limited's leadership is fully committed to ensuring continued and effective implementation of this policy and expects all Principal Security Consultants Limited Employees and Third Parties to share in this commitment. Any breach of this policy will be taken seriously and may result in disciplinary action or business sanction.

This policy has been approved by Principal Security Consultants Limited's Managing Director.
